

Acknowledgments

(This is not a puzzle. It's just well-deserved acknowledgments of contributors.)

Jay Lorch would like to thank the following people for their help in creating the August 2013 Puzzled Pint puzzles.

Thanks to the Puzzled Pint organizers for creating and nurturing the Puzzled Pint concept over the years, organizing the August event in particular, and for being so welcoming of my puzzles! Special thanks to Curtis Chen for being my main contact and to Matt Cleinman for designing the beautiful logo for this month's puzzles.

Also, tremendous thanks to the 107 playtesters, whose invaluable feedback helped dramatically improve the event! 74 of them participated in a beta test at the National Puzzlers' League (NPL) convention, so many of the people below are listed by NPL nom. Special thanks to Michelle Teague, who playtested the first, most raw, version of each puzzle.
