

Bork, Bork, Bork!

Hi everybody! Um... so... our special guest star for tonight has gone missing, and Kermit has asked me to do the introductions while he goes and tries to find the guest. So, first up: a man who doesn't just talk the talk, he woks the wok (ha!). He's not afraid to take a whisk, and he really throws himself into every recipe he makes. Here to share with you the secret to why all his desserts are so delicious, please welcome... the Swedish Chef!!!

In order to discover what the Chef's secret ingredient is, you will have to translate it from Mock Swedish into English. To do that, just follow the few simple rules that the Chef gives you.
