

Mottephobia - Fear of butterflies

by Anna M., Chicago

ANSWER: Each line gives two crossword clues that lead to two words. The second word of each line is just the first word with 'tt' replacing one letter. Each of these letters read top to bottom gives GLIDER, which can also be transformed in a similar fashion to GLITTER, the answer.

- Code error » Rear end Bug » Butt G
- XY » Not shiny Male » Matte L
- Heated for pasta » Like a genie Boiled » Bottled I
- Mixing board slider » More obese Fader » Fatter D
- It's believing » Scene Seeing » Setting E
- Became naked » Swung a stick Bared » Batted R

GLIDER » GLITTER

The Bonus puzzles are becoming YOUR puzzles! If YOU have a puzzle that you think would make a good bonus puzzle in future months, let us know! Send the puzzle along with its solution to gamecontrol@puzzledpint.com, and we'll get in contact with you. (This is not a clue.)

Mottephobia - Fear of butterflies

by Anna M., Chicago

It's hard having a fear of something that the world finds beautiful and appealing. It seems like everything can change to resemble them — even the phobia name itself.

- Code Error » Rear end _____ » _____
- XY » Not shiny _____ » _____
- Heated for pasta » Like a genie _____ » _____
- Mixing board slider » More obese _____ » _____
- It's believing » Scene _____ » _____
- Became naked » Swung a stick _____ » _____

_____ » _____

The Bonus puzzles are becoming YOUR puzzles! If YOU have a puzzle that you think would make a good bonus puzzle in future months, let us know! Send the puzzle along with its solution to gamecontrol@puzzledpint.com, and we'll get in contact with you. (This is not a clue.)