

Lesson A4: BISHOPS

Bishops are known for two things: moving diagonally and terrible spelling!

At the bottom, I've noted the moves that bishops took during a practice game. Only in this game the bishops didn't start in their regular locations. Following these moves will get you heading in the right direction.

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8

1. A South American snake that can weigh hundreds of pounds
2. A beverage made from fruit juice, usually sweetened with sugar and mixed with water
3. A type of government where you probably wouldn't find an emperor or monarch
4. A celebrity with a big personality who might make a real racket
5. An animal with antlers that can be found in Canada, Russia, and northern Europe
6. Someone who opposes fighting, conflict, and violence
7. Usually the most extreme of its kind or the last of a sequence
8. A precious crystal and birthstone that's often found in jewelry

Bishop A: SE x5 tiles, NE x2, NW x3, SW x4, SE x3	=	_____
Bishop B: NW x2 tiles, SE x1, SW x5, SE x1	=	_____
Bishop C: SW x4 tiles, SE x3, NW x5, SW x1	=	_____
Bishop D: SW x2 tiles, NW x5, NE x2, SE x3	=	_____