

On the attached map, start at the single arrow and make a path, turning only at intersections as clues indicate.

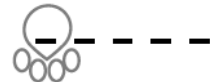

Thing used by a dog to drag people around...

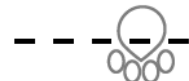

Thing that holds helium for children...

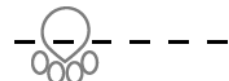

Thing that a creek wants to be when it grows up...

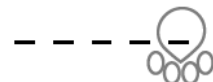

Thing in Africa like a striped horse...

Thing we live on that orbits the sun...

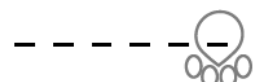

Thing you remove from a deck of cards before playing...

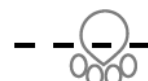

Thing in a forest that's made of wood...

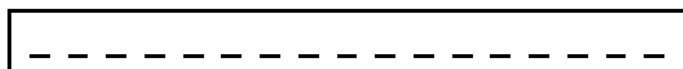

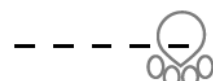

Thing that kills werewolves and frightens vampires...

Thing in the center of camp that gets people to tell scary stories...

Thing that turns on an axle...

We've got some work to do now
