

The Cat Cafe

You went by the cat cafe three times in one day, morning, noon, and afternoon. Each time, you stopped and looked at the cats through the window. There were fifteen cats, with zero, one, or two cats at each location. Early in the day, some cats were hiding where you couldn't see them. But the cats you could see gave you an idea. The third time, you decided to go into the cafe. What did you get when you went in?

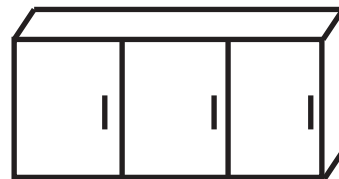

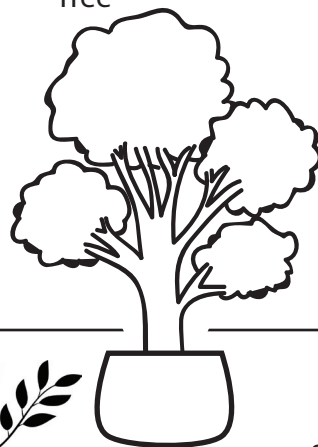

A _____

1. No cats climbed the tree or chased the wand in the morning.
2. The catnip and mouse got more popular every time you visited.
3. The fish tank got less popular each time.
4. The cats were so excited that only one had time to sleep.
5. Four cats hid in the morning, three at noon, and none in the afternoon.
6. Artemis the hunter sharpened her claws before and after a midday fishing trip.
7. Bandit came out of hiding at noon, had a snack, and snoozed away the afternoon in a comfy spot.
8. Chip and Dexter chased the laser pointer all morning. When its batteries ran out before noon, all the cats lost interest.
9. Chip and Dexter visited the scratching post, but not at the same time. While Chip was scratching, Dexter went into hiding.
10. Elsa watched the fun from the cabinets and the trees, before meeting Lily to play.
11. Fluffy was hiding in the morning, so she didn't hear the lecture about not climbing trees while high on catnip.
12. Gordo spent all day at the food bowl.
13. Hank climbed the walls with Kiara in the morning. Later, he always seemed to be somewhere that Elsa had just left.
14. Iggy lounged around the house, except at lunchtime when he pounced on a toy he thought was food.
15. Java and Mittens went everywhere together. They liked mice, fish, and magic, but not in that order.
16. Kiara thought the floor was made of lava. She went from far right to far left, and back, without touching the ground.
17. Lily left the house, failed to locate Elsa atop the cabinets, and finally found her in a magical place.
18. Nacho hid from all the excitement. When he came out late in the day, he liked to be in a place that felt like home.
19. Like Nacho, Orville hid until late in the day. Then he went on a bender with Chip.
20. Only Artemis, Gordo, Iggy, and Kiara were in the same place more than once.
