

Y?

In the myth, the nymph spryly joined the glyphs of the sphynx on the flags of the crypt, to try to scry the answer to my question: "Why?"

1. You mutter an expression of distaste when you find chewing gum adhered to the harp string that you tried to pull sharply.
2. You utter a short yelp after you lose your footing while attempting a somersault.
3. You remove your oxen's harness, fix your wagon's broken wheel strut and tend to your campfire.
4. Your long chit-chat with a witness helps you make a breakthrough in the case; maybe now the chief will cut you some leeway.
5. You pull back hard on your horse's reins and then smack it on its rear-end and side.
6. You express boredom while you watch a crustacean try to breed.
