

SPRINGFIELD BILLBOARDS

The new electronic billboard has just been installed in Springfield. It allows all of the local advertisers to share the same billboard and cycle through their messaging. Unfortunately, Professor Frink's billboard display program has a bug: all of the second lines from the messages are being shown out of order!

Can you add the lines back together in the right order to find Bart's hidden message?

First Lines

- Kwik-E-Mart: (1) •
- You have tried the rest, (2) •
- Flanders' Leftorium: (2) •
- Attention Nerds: Venmo us your lunch money. (6) •
- Doctor Nick Riviera: If I kill you, (3) •
- The DMV: (1) •
- Alliance Against Christmas: (5) •
- O'Kelly's Market: Is she tired of flowers? (1) •
