One day, Sun Wukong and his new monkey friends journeyed to the source of a stream where a powerful waterfall thundered down. The monkeys were all very curious about what was behind the waterfall, but none of them dared to venture to the other side. They declared that whoever was brave enough to go into the waterfall and strong enough to make it back out would become their new king.

Help Sun Wukong bridge the gaps in the rocks so that he can cross the waterfall and claim the title of the Monkey King! Oddly enough, to make each bridge, Sun Wukong places a single character between two ad

2. X SUITXBLE WEXPON

For many years, Sun Wukong and his friends lived peacefully on Flower Fruit Mountain. One day, tired of his everyday life, Sun Wukong found a powerful sage who taught him how to use magic. Once he had gained many new powers, he decided he also needed a weapon. Brash and arrogant, he traveled to the palace of the Eastern Dragon King and demanded the Dragon King's finest arms and armor.

To make a long story short, Sun Wukong finally decided on the Ruyi Jingu Bang, an enormous pillar that controls the ebb and flow of the tides. Sun Wukong used his magic to shrink the pillar down. It got progressively smaller until it was the size of a needle, making it easier to carry around.

Help Sun Wukong shrink some more objects to discover a magical attribute he gained while studying with the sage!

3. MAGICAL TRANSFORMATIONS

Sun Wukong gained many other powers after studying with the sage. One of them was the ability to transform into all sorts of animals and objects! As he grew more powerful, he became more arrogant and self-important. Find all the hidden versions of Sun Wukong, keeping in mind that he cannot hide diagonally. Then, see what's left behind to discover a word that now describes him.

4. HXVOC IN HEXVEN

Sun Wukong's arrogance grew more and more, until one day, he demanded to be included in the heavenly court. The Jade Emperor agreed, appeasing him with an empty title – "Guardian of the Immortal Peach Orchard".

One day, a group of celestial maidens went to the orchard to collect peaches for an Imperial banquet. Furious that he had not been invited, Sun Wukong used his magic powers to put them to sleep. On top of that, as revenge, he ate every single peach in the orchard!

The peaches in the heavenly orchard are special, conferring immortality on whomever eats them. There are three types, and they take either 3,000, 6,000, or 9,000 years to bloom. Figure out what peaches are in each of the three different groves of the orchard to find out which soldiers went after Sun Wukong!

THE CHALLENGE

After Sun Wukong ruined the celestial banquet, the emperor sent many soldiers to apprehend him. However, they were all soundly defeated. Tired of Sun Wukong's shenanigans, the Jade Emperor decided to appeal to a higher power for help – the Buddha.

When the Buddha arrived, he picked up Sun Wukong with one enormous hand and issued a challenge: if Sun Wukong could escape his palm, then he could have the Jade Emperor's position. If not, he would face imprisonment.

Sun Wukong laughed uproariously. Accepting the challenge, he bolted, traversing millions of miles in an instant. He quickly reached the end of the universe, where he saw some giant pillars.

First, to prove that he had made it to the edge of world, he scribbled letter by letter descriptions of all his past exploits, from his birth out of the magic stone to his exploits in the immortal peach orchard. When he was finally done, he took one last glance at the pillars.

When Sun Wukong returned to where he started, what did he discover about the pillars?

NZZIE BONUS DOUBLE TROUBLE

Sun Wukong has many supernatural abilities. One interesting skill is that he can pluck out hair from his body and transform it into clones of himself! However, Sun Wukong's clones are as mischievous as he is, and today, some of them seem to be causing trouble in the garden of a minor deity.

Each number corresponds to the number of clones that Sun Wukong saw directly next to one another (i.e. In the first row, he saw 3 monkeys next to each other. After at least 1 space, he saw 3 more monkeys next to each other. And after at least 1 space, he saw a single monkey by itself.)

Help Sun Wukong look for his clones to find a phrase that he said to them!
